Re: In re Application of Natalia Potanina, Nos. 14-mc-31 and 14-mc-57
(S.D.N.Y., consolidated March 14, 2014) (Part I)

Dear Chief Judge Preska:

We represent Respondent Guerman Aliev in the above-captioned matter. We write pursuant to Your Honor's June 30, 2015 Order to inform the Court whether any issues remain to be disposed of and, if so, to provide the Court with a proposal for how to proceed.

We have conferred with counsel for Petitioner. In light of our discussion, we write separately on two points. First, we would like to bring to the Court's attention what we believe may be a typographical error in the June 30, 2015 Order that we respectfully request be corrected. On the first page of the decision, fifth line, the Order references a hearing on June 17, 2014. We believe the year should be 2015, not 2014. Because the Court did in fact hold a hearing in this case on June 17, 2014, we are concerned that there could be confusion in the case history absent a correction.

Second and finally, Respondent Aliev believes that as between Petitioner and himself, no further issues remain to be disposed of, recognizing that pursuant to the settlement agreement (ordered at 14-mc-31, dkt. no. 72), discovery is not yet complete as to other parties in this matter. We understand that Petitioner may raise additional issues she believes are open with Your Honor, and if so, we will respond as appropriate.

Respectfully submitted,

/s/ Michael A. Cardozo
